

Professionel TRAINING CAMPS

IN THE BORDER-REGION OF
GERMANY AND THE NETHERLANDS

Sports- & Conference Hotel de Poort

Sports-& Conference Hotel de Poort

- Location -

The Sports -& Conference Hotel de Poort is located in the heart of Europe. Not far from the German-Dutch border between Eindhoven and Dusseldorf, the hotel is located in the middle of the region 'Niederrhein' in Goch. In the region, where the Dutch and German football heart beats, are many airports from which the hotel de Poort can be reached in a short time. Within less than one hour you can get comfortably to this unique location from the airports of Dusseldorf, Weeze and Eindhoven. Even Frankfurt airport is 3 hours away.

Because of the excellent motorway network around the hotel de Poort, the football cities of Eindhoven, Maastricht, Sittard and Venlo and as well Duesseldorf, Moenchengladbach, Leverkusen, Cologne, Duisburg, Gelsenkirchen, Dortmund, Bochum, Aachen on the German side can be reached in about an hour. Despite this exposed position, the hotel de Poort is located at the edge of a town where the hustle and bustle of the city does not take place.

- Hotel -

The Sports-& Conference Hotel de Poort is located in Goch. The hotel that is offering a personal atmosphere is specialized in football training camps and has 74 comfortable rooms in the categories Standard & Deluxe. The rooms are equipped with many amenities.

Moreover, the guests have the possibility to use a panorama swimming pool, a sauna and a football hall with two football fields. In the fitness centre of the hotel various muscle groups can be worked out. On the menu card of the excellent restaurant are seasonal dishes prepared with fresh products.

"We take care of all your needs so you can concentrate on the essentials."

- Rooms -

The Hotel de Poort has 74 furnished and decorated rooms. Most of the fully equipped rooms can be used as an individual or a twin bed room. The rooms are including:

*hair dryer
bath with shower & toilet flat screen TV telephone
free Wi-Fi writing desk*

The Standard- and Deluxe Rooms have partially a balcony with a view to the nature.

In the Deluxe Rooms, club officials, coaches or managers can reside during the training camp. The ancient atmosphere combined with the modern technology leaves no desires and encourages creativity for every guest.

- Food -

Whether in the restaurant 'Weberstube', in a separately defined area or in the capacious knight's hall – in 'Hotel de Poort' you choose the location for your meals.

The training camp package includes a completely full board service. In the morning a delicious breakfast buffet is served that leaves nothing to be desired. For lunch and dinner, your individual tailored menu can be cooked in the modern kitchen. In this matter, the kitchen team contacts you before the training camp starts.

„Quality and variety of meals in exclusive surroundings serve as a basis for sporting excellence.“

- Conference- and lounge-rooms -

The Hotel de Poort offers exceptionally good opportunities for team meetings, conferences or training sessions. The hotel itself disposes of 8 multifunctional, well equipped and light-flooded meeting rooms. Some of these rooms offer a great view to the nature.

All meeting rooms are equipped with a projector, a sound system, magnetic walls, boards, flip charts and meeting materials. Electronic game consoles can be connected and used in the rooms, as well as in the conference- and lounge-rooms.

In addition, the team has a well-equipped and easy-to-reach material room and a comfortably equipped massage room including three massage tables. These services are also integrated in the training camp package and free of charge for the team.

- Hotel Extras -

The hotel de Poort has a comfortable panorama swimming pool, a gym and a luxurious Sauna. These facilities are for free for the team.

The idyllic nature area around the hotel de Poort offers the team a lot of jogging and biking routes. Bikes for free usage is included in the training camp package.

In addition it can be used a football hall in the hotel (two football fields a 30*15m), a general-purpose field, a tennis court, a squash court, a sports shooting range and also a bowling alley.

- Activities in the neighbourhood -

Team-Building – this topic gets a high priority in the preparation for a match or a whole season in modern professional football. In the close neighbourhood of the hotel de Poort you find a wide range of teambuilding opportunities. The leisure facility “Blue Lagoon” (35 minutes by bus) adjoins directly to the spacious ground of the location. Focal points of this wide facility are water sports. Kayak-tours or waterski-action, you’ll find something for everyone. The sandy beach and the clear water of the nature lake offer the perfect situation to swim and relax. For sports activities you also find beach-volleyball- and soccer-fields, as well as a professional climbing forest. If you like it a bit faster, so you can make a trip to the Indoor-Kart-Arena in Swalmen, Netherlands, just a few kilometres away from the hotel de Poort. A team-event on the racecourse offers a variety during a training camp. The Designer Outlet in Roermond offers its guests excellent shopping opportunities. Designer brands are offered and sold at reduced prices.

„Activities beside the training fields stimulate the team spirit and offer the necessary variety during a training camp.“

- Highlights of the region -

Two 18-hole golf-courses are in close vicinity to the hotel de Poort. The Golfclub Bleijenbeek is just 10 minutes away (by bus) and the golf-course of the cooperation partner 'Golfoverdegens is 30 minutes away (by bus). In the landscape you find your drives and greens in between small rivers and lagoons, which offer a challenge to golfers of all levels.

Just 50 minutes away from the hotel de Poort, the capital city of North-Rhine-Westphalia – Duesseldorf is located. Germany's most luxurious shopping street, the Koenigsallee, or the famous River Rhine Promenade pull each year millions of tourists from all over the world to Duesseldorf. A trip to the metropolis next to the River Rhine offers an interesting variation to the everyday training. International flair, the hippest shops and “the longest bar of the world” the old City of Duesseldorf, make the state capital city to a unique experience.

- Training facilities -

Professional training pitches are the central element of each training camp. Therefore 'Hotel de Poort' offers excellent possibilities. Directly next to the hotel you can use the training facilities of the Dutch club Stormvogels '28 Siebengewald. The professional training ground of Siebengewald offers numerous natural grass pitches, which can be used for free. You can reach the pitches in 10 - 15 minutes by bus.

Alternatively, the freely available bikes can be used. The main natural grass pitches dispose of a floodlighting system.

In total privacy and away from paparazzi's and reporters, you can prepare your team for the upcoming tasks. The quality of Dutch football fields is famous all over the world and can be found at the pitches of Stormvogels '28 Siebengewald as well.

- Training facilities -

Since many years, a lot of European top teams find their way to the German and Dutch border region to prepare for important matches or for the whole season. The hospitable behaviour and the excellent training facilities in the border-region of Germany and the Netherlands are the reason for this choice.

Beside the fields located next to the hotel, there are more than four additional training locations from German and Dutch amateur-clubs who you can reach easily in less than 10km. These facilities offer natural and artificial training grounds which fits to the highest requirements.

- Friendly match opportunities -

The hotel de Poort is located in a real football-region. On the German side of the border, you find in a radius of 100 kilometers clubs like Borussia Moenchengladbach, Fortuna Duesseldorf, Borussia Dortmund, FC Schalke 04, Bayer Leverkusen, 1. FC Cologne, VfL Bochum, MSV Duisburg, Alemannia Aachen and many amateur clubs on a good level. In addition to that, there are a variety of sports grounds with high quality for friendly matches during the training camp in the region.

The Dutch clubs VVV-Venlo, PSV Eindhoven, Vitesse Arnheim and NEC Nijmegen can also be reached in less than one hour. Beside these teams, there are many second- and third-league-clubs from the Netherlands in the region. Even clubs from Belgium from the Jupiler Pro League, like Standard Luettich, KRC Genk or amateur-clubs from this country can be your opponent during the training camp.

You can also play your friendly matches in the stadium of the Dutch professional club VVV-Venlo with space for 8.000 people.

- Contact -

If you're interested in a professional training camp in the boarder-region of Germany and the Netherlands, please contact us. It's our pleasure to offer you a viewing of all our locations, so that you can proof our quality live on location.

Robert Pinior

Managing Director

RP Sportmanagement

Mail: pinior@rp-sportmanagement.de

Telefon: 0049 (0) 177 – 33 97 06

Friedrich-Ebert-Straße 15

D-47877 Willich

Steffen Heythausen

Sales- & Marketing-Manager

RP Sportmanagement

Mail: heythausen@rp-sportmanagement.de

Telefon: 0049 (0)176 – 787 10 868

Friedrich-Ebert-Straße 15

D-47877 Willich

